

Richard Shorma

Richard Shorma has been involved with the Shorma Family Company's for over 35 years and brings to the Vestment team a variety of Leadership and Business experiences. He has served on several boards of Directors, administrative and manufacturing capacities giving him a broad view of disciplines required to grow and prosper in business. He currently serves as chairman of the board for Shurco a Shorma Family company and shareholder in several other Shorma owned entities.

Professionally, Richard's achievements formerly include serving on the Board of Director's for the Dakota's Manufacturing Partnership, a partnership between states and the Federal Government to promote lean manufacturing techniques along with other lean services applicable to other industries, currently a member of the Board of Regents for the University of Mary,

Married to Rose Shorma and they have 5 Children.

Personal Statement on Leadership "One can never be a leader unless they first learn how to serve."